

Clinical Questions in Cardiology: Using Glucagon-like Peptide-1 Receptor Agonists

Clinical Resources

American College of Cardiology.

- Diabetes and Your Heart. <https://www.cardiosmart.org/topics/diabetes-and-your-heart>
- 2020 FDA Guidance for Diabetes Drug Development: Cardiorenal Populations and Outcomes: Lessons Learned and Future Directions. <https://www.acc.org/latest-in-cardiology/articles/2021/09/10/13/46/2020-fda-guidance-for-diabetes-drug-development>

American Diabetes Association.

- Diabetes Can Affect Your Heart. <https://diabetes.org/health-wellness/diabetes-and-your-heart/diabetes-affect-your-heart>
- Diabetes and Your Heart. <https://diabetes.org/health-wellness/diabetes-and-your-heart>

American Heart Association. <https://easternstates.heart.org/diabetes-and-your-heart/>

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Diabetes and Your Heart.

<https://www.cdc.gov/diabetes/library/features/diabetes-and-heart.html>

National Institute of Diabetes and Digestive and Kidney Diseases. Preventing Diabetes Problems.

<https://www.niddk.nih.gov/health-information/diabetes/overview/preventing-problems>

National Kidney Foundation. Diabetes and Your Eyes, Heart, Nerves, Feet, and Kidneys.

<https://www.kidney.org/atoz/content/diabetes-and-your-eyes-heart-nerves-feet-and-kidneys>

Schnell O, Battelino T, Bergenstal R, et al. CVOT Summit 2022 Report: new cardiovascular, kidney, and glycemic outcomes. Cardiovasc Diabetol. 2023;22:59.